Do you prefer to live in a quiet complex with an on-site manager and rules against noise, parties and trash, or a more laid back complex where you can play your music loudly and have parties whenever, but so can your neighbors? Why?

Do you have any personal qualities we should know about that may set you apart from other applicants, such as a high GPA, involvement in sports or community service, Greek affiliations, leadership experience, demonstrated responsibility or maturity, extraordinary circumstances, or hardships overcome? If so, please describe. If not, how would your friends describe you?

Have you had any bad renting experiences in the past, such as a manager or roommate you didn't like, or a maintenance problem with a unit? If so, please describe.

How will you pay your rent? Will your parents pay? Do you have or have you had a job? What jobs? _____

If you will have a roommate(s), what made you choose that person to be your roommate?

Are you graduating before your lease will expire? _____ If so, when? _____
